

as an american citizen i have the right to choose my source of enertainment. i enjoy everything xm radio offers and resent the fact that some want to deny me that right. i find the traffic reports and weather reports useful because of the amount of interstate driving that i do. if you want to do something eliminate "SPAM" from the internet.

thank you

george chessler